TY COBB'S WIFE IS HOME LOVER

Shuns Limelight and Devotes Time to Her Children

Detroit, Mich., May 6.—Mrs. Tyrus Cobb is the mother of two charming children, rather than the wife of the world's greatest baseball player.

Mrs. Cobb dislikes the publicity and fanfare that always comes a glamour around her famous husband. She keeps as far as possible from the limelight that is constantly seeking Tyrus.

She is a very patient little woman who has her time taken up completely with the two little Cobbs, Tyrus, Jr., and Shirley.

Tyrus is a bright, active little fellow with brick red hair and large, bushy blue eyes. He has his father's spirit of adventure, however, and he soon overcomes his timidity and takes chances at climbing clay banks and trees without regard for the appearance of his clothes. He is a real boy.

Shirley is another blue-eyed tot with brown hair. She is just as much of a little lady as Tyrus, Jr., is a little man. When the family is gathered around the table eating, Tyrus sits in a high chair next to his mother, while Papa Ty takes care of Shirley. The family naturally attract a great deal of attention.

Mrs. Cobb likes baseball and she sees all the games she can. Her chief delight is to see Ty stealing home.

FOUR DANGEROUS HITTERS.

Detroit Tigers Looks Better Now Than Last Season.

One reason why the Detroit Tigers are harder to beat this year than last season or for several seasons is the fact that Jennings now has four men who are dangerous any time they take their turn at bat.

Detroit is going along this year with a slugging quartet in place of a clouting pair. Last year it was Cobb and Crawford. Now it's Kavanagh, Cobb, Crawford and Veach. Kavanagh and Veach have gradually developed into wonderful hitters, as dangerous as any of the more widely known stars.

"Ham" Hyatt is kept in the limelight by his successful pinch hitting. Hyatt's timely wallop have placed more than one game on ice for the Pirates so far this spring.

Here's the Beer They All Like

While all manufacturers of beer follow the same general lines in brewing, some are more successful than others in producing a beverage that appeals to the public taste.

There are several reasons for this. It is important, for instance, that the raw materials used be of the highest grade. However, no matter how choice the ingredients are, much depends upon the brewer's knack—the degree of success with which he blends those ingredients in producing the finished product.

Drink
Calumet
Beer

It has a deliciously mild, fragrant aroma, and an equally mild, pleasant flavor—no bitter taste. It is universally popular.

Beer critics especially—those who believe they are fully competent to tell a good beer when they drink it—are invited to try the Calumet brand. They will not be disappointed.

St. Louis, Mo., May 6.—"Red" Russell, who was beaten by St. Louis Saturday, returned to the mound for Chicago yesterday and turned the tables on St. Louis. Chicago pounded four St. Louis pitchers for a total of 11 hits. Manager Riskey used eighteen players in an endeavor to check the visitors, but to no avail.

CARPENTIER TO DEFER HIS TOUR

Bout With Gunboat Smith Causes Plans to Be Changed

Paris, May 6.—The plans of Georges Carpentier, the French light-heavyweight, for a tour of the world have been set back as the result of the match made with Gunboat Smith. This bout is to be held in London late in June and the fact that the match was made after Carpentier was in receipt of excellent offers for such a tour indicates clearly the confidence of the French pugilist and his backers.

According to preliminary negotiations between M. Deschamps, manager of Carpentier and "Snowey" Baker, the Australian fight promoter, Carpentier was to have received $50,000 and expense for three bouts in Australia. It was proposed to match him with Dave Smith, Eddie McGoorty and a third opponent with an interval of several weeks between bouts. Carpentier was expected to return to France via America, meeting several boxers of prominence while in the United States.

This campaign, which would have netted the French boxer many thousands of dollars, was the principal reason for his exemption for another year from French army service. If he should succeed in defeating Smith his ability as a drawing card will be greatly increased, but should Carpentier be counted out there will be little demand for his services in either Australia or the United States so far as championship bouts are concerned. That Carpentier and his backers have every confidence in his ability to defeat Smith is shown by this change in the Frenchman's campaign, notwithstanding that Smith is generally considered the equal of Joe Jeannette, who won a recent decision from Carpentier after twenty rounds of fast boxing.

LIKES SLIDE SPIKES FIRST.
Billy Sullivan, the veteran White Sox catcher, prefers to have a man slide in spikes first, rather than one in standing up.

"When they slide," says Billy, "all you have to watch is the spikes. When they run in you never know where they will hit you."

Boston game postponed; rain.

Federal League.
St. Louis, Mo., May 6.—Willett, after pitching good ball for seven innings, weakened in the eighth and Baltimore scored five runs, giving them the game from the locals.

Kansas City, Mo., May 6.—Cullop's effective pitching enabled Kansas City to defeat Pittsburgh here yesterday. The visitors were unable to hit safely until the sixth. The locals scored all their runs by bunting hits in the fourth.

Chicago, Ill., May 6.—Buffalo won the first extra-inning game in Chicago this season yesterday when they defeated Chicago in twelve innings. The winning runs came in the twelfth when Allen was safe on Tinker's fumble. Krapp walked, Hanford doubled and Allen and Krapp scored. Hanford scored when Wilson threw the relay of the ball wild off second. Hanford's batting was the feature.

CAN PRO. AND AMATEUR MEET ON SAME FIELD.

New York, May 6.—Notices for a mail vote to decide the question of the legality of professional and amateur athletes competing on the same field the same day were sent out yesterday by James E. Sullivan, chairman of the national registration committee of the Amateur Athletic Union.

The question arose when the Clan McLeod, a Scottish athletic organization, sought permission to hold two distinct meets at its games in July.

There is no law in the Amateur Athletic union rule book preventing such a meet. It has always been the contention of the officials in the metropolitan district that amateurs and professionals should not be allowed to compete where a single fee is charged.

Sullivan said other members of the national registration committee who live in this district are opposed to the plan, but it is not known what are the opinions of out-of-town members on the subject. The result of the vote will be announced in two weeks.

CARRIGAN WELL FORTIFIED.

Has Extra Men For Every Position on Pay Roll.

Manager Carrigan of the Red Sox believes that his team will make a good showing in the pennant race in the American league, because he is more strongly fortified in all departments of the game than are most of the other clubs.

"I doubt if there is another team in the race which is better fortified in this respect than I am," says Carrigan. "I have seven infielders; Wagner, Engel, Janvrin, Scott, Yerkes, Gardner and a youngster named Wilson, who is out of it now with an injured hand. For my outfield I have Behg and Henriksen as utility men, and they are both first-class ball players. What is more I am well supplied with catchers, having four of them, any one of whom can 'hold' his own. They are Cady, Nunamaker, Thomas and myself, so that I am not in danger of having my team seriously handicapped in the event of accidents to any of the regulars."

That the Red Sox are apt to have one of the most useful pitching staffs in the league is indicated by the splendid showing several of the youngsters have made this spring. Foster, for instance, looks like a pitcher who will win a majority of the games he is sent in to work. Rankin Johnson is sure to be useful, while Dutch Leonard is conceded to be a much better pitcher this year than ever before. Then there is Bedient and Collins, seasoned material, and if Carrigan's views are to be accepted, Joe Wood is sure to be at his best in about a month from now.

NO BOXING OUT OF DOORS.

Wisconsin Attorney General Makes Ruling on Point.

Anticipating that numerous boxing clubs in the state might be planning on conducting boxing shows in the open this summer, Chairman Liginger of the commission, has taken this question up with the attorney general and as a result a decision has been rendered which will prevent shows in the open air.

In answer to a recent query on this subject Chairman Liginger has issued the following statement:

The state boxing commission has anticipated for some time that they would receive several applications to hold boxing exhibitions in baseball parks and motorhomes or other outdoor enclosures. Inasmuch that the law provides that the application for license must show that the club or organization has a bonafide lease for one year of the building for athletic purposes wherein such contests are to be held, the commission has discouraged the idea of holding boxing contests in baseball parks, motorhomes, etc., and have intimated that applications along that line would be refused a license, but in order to definitely settle the question the commission has requested an opinion of Attorney-Gen. Owen on the matter, who has ruled that the law clearly intended to permit boxing exhibitions or contests to be held only in a building.

BILLIARD TITLE TO BE DECIDED

Inman, British Champ Coming to America to Meet Hoppe

By winning the British championship for the third successive time Melbourne Inman demonstrated conclusively that he is the premier professional at English billiards, occupying a similar position to that held by William F. Hoppe of New York in the realm of headline billiards.

Inman retained his title by defeating Thomas Reece, 18,900 to 12,825, in the deciding contest played at Holborn hall, London. Reece qualified for this match by defeating George Gray, the Australian player, 9,900 to 7,211, and winning from Henry W. Stevenson, the English veteran, 9,900 to 8,885, in the elimination contests, but against the consummate skill of Inman, he was outclassed.

At the conclusion of the match Inman was presented with the billiards championship by Lord Londsdale, who for many years has been a patron of the game and an officer of the Billiards Control club of London. Lord Londsdale is probably better known in America than Inman. He has visited the United States and Canada a number of times, one of his most noted visits being when James J. Corbett defeated Charlie Mitchell, the English boxer, at Jacksonville, Fla., in 1894.

He is planning to visit America in the fall to see the series of international matches between William F. Hoppe and Inman.

SPORTING EDITORS' NOTES.

Guy Zinn, one of Otto Knabe's Fed speeders at Baltimore, is out of the game nursing an injured foot.

Wood, an Arkansas collegian, is making good in the outfield and with the stick for the Cleveland Naps.

Paddy Bauman, the Detroit second sacker who has landed back in Providence, doubtless will strengthen "Wild Bill" Donovan's team.

Notwithstanding the loss of several of their star players, the Phillies have been able to stage some pretty classy contests so far.

Philadelphia critics claim that "Stuffy" McInnis, the Athletics' first sacker, can travel farther for a foul fly than any other first baseman in the American league.

Hal Chase, first baseman of the White Sox, believes he is to take part in a world's series next fall, after struggling ten years for the honor. Can it be that Connie Mack is after Hal?

And now the Detroit Tigers are flirting with the American league championship. Before the opening of the season the Tigers were placed in the rear guard, but that dope won't do at the present time.

Manager Frank Chance of the Yankees declares that in Truesdale he has the real find of the season. The "Peerless Leader" has had his eye on the record of the Buffalo infielder for a year or longer.

Larry Doyle, field general and second sacker of the Giants, is performing in true championship form. The genial captain can be depended upon to do his share in keeping the McGrawites in the running.

In 1903 Jersey City won the International league championship with the highest average (.741) ever made by a team in the league. The "Skeeters" evidently played themselves out in that year, for they have never been up there since.

Sam Langford's next bout will be with Harry Willis in New Orleans. Tom McMahon and "Kid" Kenneth are matched to box 20 rounds at Vernon on May 8.

Jack Dougherty, manager of Al McCoy, wants $15,000 for McCoy's end in the projected match with Billy Murray at San Francisco.

Fredie Welsh has been matched to box Harry Trendall in St. Louis on May 15. A week later, in New Orleans, he is to meet Joe Mandot.

Pittsburgh now has four policemen.

MOVIES TO HELP CORRECT FAULTS

McGraw Plans Novel Experiment With New York Giants

Moving picture machines are going to be used as a means of showing the faults of the New York Giants. This new method of teaching baseball has been decided upon by Manager McGraw.

Each day moving pictures will be taken of the Giants during the game. The next day these pictures will be thrown on a screen in the Giants' club house so that each mistake made by a player can be seen and commented upon. McGraw will also have motion pictures made of each player individually. These will be taken of a player batting, running, throwing, sliding, rounding the bases, etc.

The object of these will be to see where each player errs in his motions. Having discovered the faults and shown them to the players, McGraw, hopes to have an easier time perfecting his men. It is hard to convince a player of his faults, but the movies may prove to be the ball tower where and why he is at fault. The Giants are going to see themselves as others see them.

In Boston, Pitcher Foster of the Red Sox, stood the Washington players on their heads and beat them easily. The same Foster performing on the Senators' home grounds lasted just three innings.
